

COMMISSIONERS COURT WELCOME LETTER

September 30, 2003

Dear Fort Bend County Employee:

WELCOME to Fort Bend County government. By being chosen for your position, you will be a special representative of Fort Bend County. The Texas Legislature's Local Government Code defines the creation and governing structure of county government. Other legislative codes define and authorize the legislature's guidelines for operation of county government.

Commissioner's Court is authorized to conduct, approve, administer and be accountable for the tax revenue that is collected from all property owners in the county. For this we acknowledge this responsibility and request that during your employment you strive to help protect the resources of the county in your daily functions for Fort Bend County.

This Employee Information Manual is prepared to answer most of your questions that you might have during your employment. Your supervisor, whether elected official or department head, is empowered to assist you in the performance of your duties and responsibilities. Their leadership is essential to the success of the fulfillment of our responsibilities to the citizens of Fort Bend County.

We welcome you again and hope that you realize the self-fulfillment you are seeking during your employment with Fort Bend County.

Sincerely,

Fort Bend County Commissioners Court
